Avalon Senior Citizens Organization, Inc.

Avalon, NJ
Vol. 33 Issue No. 10
September 2015

The President's Message:

Welcome back to the convivial gatherings of the Avalon Senior Citizens Organization. I hope that you all had a wonderful and pleasant summer. I felt that our beautiful little island was "invaded" by too many visitors this summer. I am wondering if it is the aftermath of the damages rendered by Hurricane Sandy. With so many damaged properties along the northern shores and many without the ability to rebuild, many have moved to our southern beaches. Bicycles and humans and canines abound. We also have a number of our Canadian neighbors who love our silvery white beaches and the beautiful sunsets. Although we welcome them all, many of us are looking forward to the quieter and less humid days of September and the beginning of the change in colors of our surroundings. There are memories of "The Wedding of the Leaves" by Gertrude Tooley Buckingham.

Soon the leaves will all be turning.
From their many shades of green,
Into colors bright and gorgeous...
Reds and yellows, browns and orange,
Underneath the smiling sun,
Each leaf vying with the other
In the change they've now begun.
Giving up their summer wardrobes,
Gladly, joyfully, with glee,
Putting on their autumn trousseau.
As they leave their mother tree...

Loretta P. Finnegan, M.D.

WHITE, EDWARD J., age 91 of Avalon NJ passed away August 15, 2015. White was a proud member of the Stone Harbor post of the American Legion. Ed loved helping his neighbors and volunteering in his community. A veteran of both WWII and the Korean Conflict, Ed enjoyed spending recent years reminiscing about his time served. ASCO sent a donation to St. Jude's Hospital in Ed Whites memory.
