Reports and Recommendations by Mayor and Officials:

Reports of Officials:

Scott Wahl read the following report:

Beach Fill: A progress meeting was held earlier today in this room. Great Lakes Dredge and Dock Company still believes a start date for Avalon of March 22nd can still be met, but they have a very tight schedule to meet. The pipeline used in Ocean City will be mobilized to Cape May Inlet for inspection before coming to Avalon. The dredge that completed work in Ocean City is heading north to assist another dredge for five to seven days, before going to Staten Island for a 7- to 10-day maintenance project before it comes to Avalon. Mobilization will begin on or about March 10th, but the scheduled start date may have to be moved unless there are no interruptions in Great Lakes schedule. Pre-construction surveys are being completed today so the four bid options can be considered. We have confirmed the dredge pipe will not run across the 8th Street Jetty and will remain offshore. We have provided four updates on the website to date and more will follow; when the project starts, we anticipate daily updates on progress for community notification.

Trash Cart Program: Yesterday, we had a meeting in this room with Rehrig Pacific to coordinate the delivery of the trash cans. Soon, we will post concrete information on our website with a more definitive schedule. It is anticipated that the two-yard containers for commercial businesses will arrive on March 13th to be distributed by Pinelands Construction. It is anticipated that the residential cans will be distributed May 1-15th. Thanks to involvement from Councilman McCorristin, our team decided on final numbers for extra cans for some property owners who may desire more than one. There will be a minor change to the temporary budget to have these extra cans available at the start. Finally, I began the process this morning of applying for a grant that will pay between 8-10 percent of the total cost of the program after Rehrig connected us with the grantor Tuesday afternoon.
